

CANALICCHIO DI SOPRA®

BRUNELLO DI MONTALCINO
RISERVA

2015

Decanter

96/₁₀₀

In years it's produced, Canalicchio di Sopra crafts its Riserva from a single vineyard of the estate's oldest vines. In 2015, it hails from Vigna Vecchia Mercatale, which countered the vintage's warmth with its north-facing, breezy exposure. Opening slowly, it marries lifted liquorice, dried flowers and baking spice with forest undergrowth and leather. There's plenty of character here with a mouthful of dusty red currants and red cherries. Chewy and vigorous, it really keeps improving in the glass - but I would put it away for a few more years.
