CANALICCHIO DI SOPRA®

BRUNELLO DI MONTALCINO
VIGNA LA CASACCIA

2015

CLUB OENOLOGIQUE

96/100

Tasted immediately after the 2016, 2015 reveals its slightly warmer, more potent personality, with darker balsamic and sweet amaro tones of liquorice, bitter orange and cocoa. The palate is dark but with a potent sense of fruit just beneath, its black cherry refined by sharpening tones of bergamot and blood-orange citrus. Tannins remain enormous and bristling, though they have gained some tenderness with time. The acidity illuminates, giving both brightness and forward propulsion. Lovely iodine salinity on the finish. Drink 2025 – 2041.
