

CANALICCHIO DI SOPRA

BRUNELLO DI MONTALCINO
2015

JEB DUNNUCK

95/100

The dark red 2015 Brunello Di Montalcino is plush, generous, and ripe, with notes of licorice, black cherries, mocha, and leather. It has a light rustic touch although it feels polished at the same time. With ripe tannins and a rounded feel, it's really starting to show a very complete picture. It's drinking well now and will drink well over the next 10 years.
